VENEZUELAN QUESTION

Will be Settled at an Tarly Pay-Quicial

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10,-The Venezuelan commission has authorized the following official statement:

The statements of Lord Callabury as reported in the morning papers makes it probable that the boundary dispute now pending between Gratt Britain and Venezuela will be settled by arbitration at an early day. Under these circumstances the compalary with and Venezusia will be settled by arbitration at an early day. Under these circumstances the commission while continuing its deliberations in the preparation and orderly arrangement of many valuable maps reports and documents which have been procured and used in the course of its labors, does not propose to formulate any decision for the present of the matters subject to its examination, it will continue its seasions from time to time, but with the hope and expectation that a friendly and just settlement of the differences between the nations interested will make any final decision on its part unnecessary.

The arbitration of the Venezuelan dispute is a settled fact. All arrangements have been completed and all details of the arbitration treaty between the United States and Great Britain arranged. The final terms of the treaty of arbitration, were arranged in this city last night. The terms were cabled to London and have been accepted. The treaty covers Venezuela only and does not include a general treaty of arbitration. This treaty is to be arranged later by future negotiations. The Venezuelan arbitration commission will consist of five arbitrators, two to be named by the United States, two by Great Britain, these four to select the fifth arbitration, tenesuela will not be directly represented on the commission.

The meeting of the Venezuelan commission to-day was one of more than ordinary interest, on account of the significant statement of Lord Salisbury's speech last evening, announcing that the boundary dispute was practically ended. All the members of the commission were present, but Justice Brewer did not remain until the close of the meeting, as he had to take his place, in the supreme court to attend the Berliner patent case argument. During the early part of the meeting the address of Lord Salisbury was generally discussed and the papers containing the speeches and comments upon it were read.

telegraphs this message to those whom he calls "the bimetallists of the cast."

"In the hour of our defeat I send you greetings. No words of praise can sufficiently commend you. When it is remembered that the eastern states, sent gold delegates to both conventions, and then nearly all the eastern papers were against bimetallism, your fight appears remarkably creditable. You have shown yourselves herole, and events will vindicate the position you have taken.

Continue the fight."

Mr. Bryan's campaign was not for bimetallism, but for silver monometallism. Free and unlimited coinage of silver at a false ratio, which he advocated, has never anywhere or at any time resulted in bimetallism. It has always resulted in silver monometallism.

The Democrats of the east who voted for Mr. Bryan did not vote for free silver. They have always been for sound money, and nine-tenths of them were so last fuesday and are so to-day. The 500,000 Democrats in New York did not change their convictions between July and November. In voting for the Chinage their convictions between July and November. In voting for the Chi-caro tleket, on the Chicago platform, they simply supported the "regular nominations" of their party. It was a bitter pill, but they swallowed it. They will get the bad taste out of their mouths as soon as possible. They know that free silver is as dead as the ordinances of necession and the

The stock market to-day displayed The stock market to-day displayed continued activity and a broadening tendency with the industrials again in comparative obscurity aside from Sugar and Chicago Gas. The speculative movement reflected strenuous efforts by sold-out bulls and by the bear professionals to bring about a reaction. The tactics employed were only partially successful owing to heavy purchases of the low-priced shares and increasing outside interest in the market generally, which was stimulated by further relaxation in the money and comcreasing outside interest in the market generally, which was stimulated by further relaxation in the money and commercial paper markets had decided reaction in foreign exchange rates. Time money was leaned for all periods at 4½ per cent on choice stock exchange collateral and at 5 per cent on good mixed securities. The market for discounts broadened considerably and prime paper was taken in exceptional cases at 5½ per cent, with 5½ per cent the high figure, Good western single named paper was discounted at 6 per cent, which a week ago was practically unmarketable. Actual demand sterling was quoted by some drawers it lower and sixty days' bills were also shaded materially, while in some instances posted figures were reduced a cent. The weakness of the market was attributed partly to the completion of cavering of seventy day sterling loans and of paypartly to the completion of covering of seventy day sterling loans and of payments made for blocks of our government and other securities recently sold in this market for foreign account. On the other hand a depressing influence is beginning to be exerted on exchange by renewed foreign buying of our railway investment bonds and stocks. The advocates of lower prices were also checked sensibly by the favorable impression created at home and abroad by the exceptional success of the New pression created at nome and abroad by the exceptional success of the New York City municipal bond issue. The closing was fairly active and irregular, but final prices showed only slight net changes either way in the leading shares.

Evening Post's London financial callegram:
The good effect of Lord Salisbury's speech last night was discounted in the stock markets, hence to-day's relapse in Consols. Short money is still fight, but there are faint indications that the condition may change. The Bank of England is intimating a willingness to discount fourteen day bills at 4 instead of 4½, per cent, Contangoes on Americans are 545½ per cent, although there is a small account as yet. The tone of is a small account as yet. The tone of Americans was rather duil to-day on realizations by a few large operators. Except for that the tone would have been good, as the public here are ribbiling at law-priced bonds and shares. There is talk in good quarters to-day of goil coming from New York to Europe. The general feeling, however, that it is to early yet to decide about this.
